The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 1-2, 4, 6, 7, 9 and 11-14 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Lirette.

See Fig. 3 where the handle 30 is connected to the seat by 32 and has pivoting at 44. The claim 2 extension is 42.

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claims 3, 5, 8 and 10 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Lirette, as applied supra, in view of Hylton.

Hylton provides an extension 12 on a toilet seat handle 13 in order to separate the handle portion from the seat. It would have been obvious to provide for such a locating feature in the Lirette device in order to separate its handle from the seat. The amount of separation would have been constituted an obvious design expedient depending merely on the desires of the user.

Jones shows another seat handle.
